

Notice Regarding Employer Renewals

The Employer Application will no longer be renewed annually. Insure Oklahoma will continue to review the employer account frequently in order to ensure the employer continues to meet the eligibility requirements.

However, employees will continue to renew their applications each year. Employees will receive annual notices regarding the Insure Oklahoma renewal dates, which may differ from any renewal dates for SoonerCare benefits that an employee's household may receive.